

Expanding Sentences Using Adverbs

Expanding Sentences Using Adverbs

1a. Underline the adverb of place in the sentence below.

The kittens had somewhere safe to go.

VF

1b. Underline the adverb of time in the sentence below.

John soon began to write his own poems.

VF

2a. Tick the sentence which does not use an adverb.

A. Julian crossed the finish line at the same time as his sister.

B. We're going to Rome later this year.

C. Sunil said that he lived here.

VF

2b. Tick the sentence which does not use an adverb.

A. We always visit my grandma at Christmas.

B. The temperature on Saturday was 27 degrees!

C. The bus was often late.

VF

3a. Underline the adverb and the verb it modifies.

We are going swimming today.

VF

3b. Underline the adverb and the verb it modifies.

Can you wait there and I will come to collect you?

VF

4a. Tick the correct column in the table to show the type of adverb that has been used in the sentence below.

They're found nowhere else on earth.

| Adverb | Adverb of time | Adverb of place | Adverb of cause |
|---------|----------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| nowhere | | | |

VF

4b. Tick the correct column in the table to show the type of adverb that has been used in the sentence below.

We will take the dog for a walk soon.

| Adverb | Adverb of time | Adverb of place | Adverb of cause |
|--------|----------------|-----------------|-----------------|
| soon | | | |

VF

Expanding Sentences Using Adverbs

Expanding Sentences Using Adverbs

5a. Underline the adverb of place in the sentence below.

Whilst her mother went shopping, Sofia waited outside.

VF

5b. Underline the adverb of time in the sentence below.

Hassan often plays football with his friends, unless it's cold and raining.

VF

6a. Tick the sentence which does not use an adverb of time.

A. David had forgotten to pack his passport and mobile phone.

B. Mum usually collects David and his sister from school.

C. She always puts the heat on as soon as it turns cold.

VF

6b. Tick the sentence which does not use an adverb of place.

A. It was raining, so I decided to wait inside.

B. The netball match was exciting and fun to watch.

C. To stop herself from laughing, Kay had to look away.

VF

7a. Underline the adverb and the verb it modifies.

I can't find my shoe and I know I've searched everywhere.

VF

7b. Underline the adverb and the verb it modifies.

The pool was full and it was impossible to swim anywhere.

VF

8a. Tick the correct column in the table to show the type of adverb that has been used in the sentence below.

The new cinema opens tomorrow and I'd like to watch a film.

| Adverb | Adverb of time | Adverb of place | Adverb of cause |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

VF

8b. Tick the correct column in the table to show the type of adverb that has been used in the sentence below.

The children were tired and hungry because they had travelled far.

| Adverb | Adverb of time | Adverb of place | Adverb of cause |
|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

VF