

Using Determiners

Using Determiners

1a. Underline the determiner in the sentence below.

After football he had some cola.

1b. Underline the determiner in the sentence below.

It was brilliant that the sun was shining.

2a. Circle the determiner that is missing from the sentence below.

_____ writing is neater than yours.

My  Few  A

2b. Circle the determiner that is missing from the sentence below.

_____ toast is cooked perfectly.

His  Few  A

3a. Would these nouns need 'a' or 'an' as their determiner?

_____ car

_____ apple

3b. Would these nouns need 'a' or 'an' as their determiner?

_____ ant

_____ pear

VF

VF

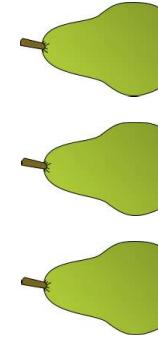

VF

VF

A (few/every) bananas.

Here are (a/some) pears.

VF

Using Determiners

Using Determiners

5a. Underline the determiners in the sentence below.

I prefer this cola to that lemonade.

5b. Underline the determiners in the sentence below.

She wants to eat her dinner in a few minutes.

6a. Circle the determiner that is missing from the sentence below.

_____ hands make light work.

An

Many

Some

A

VF

VF

6b. Circle the determiner that is missing from the sentence below.

_____ pictures are lovely looking.

An

Many

This

A

VF

VF

7a. Would these nouns need 'a' or 'an' as their determiner?

_____ unicorn

_____ orange

_____ sticker

_____ hair

_____ sticker

VF

VF

8a. Circle the correct quantifying determiner for the sentence below.

Here are (some/more/less) oranges.

VF

VF

